

Fort Hill Mission Mania

August 1-5, 2011

General information

What is “Fort Hill Mission Camp: Mission Mania”?

Through a variety of mission projects, bible study, and fellowship activities, the group will experience what it means to “love our neighbors” and how people of all ages, especially children, are able to participate in mission ministry.

When:

Monday, August 1-Friday, August 5, 2011 from 9:00-4:00pm (7:00pm on Fri)

Where:

Fort Hill Presbyterian Church Youth Room

Who:

All Fort Hill children who have completed first grade - completed fifth grade.

NOTE: At this time we are limiting enrollment to children of Fort Hill but this may change as we get closer to the start of camp.

Schedule:

On back (or attached, if email) - activities may be rearranged to accommodate weather.

Cost:

$90 per child + snack to share; includes lunch Mon-Thurs, a T-shirt, activity fees including admission to Carrowinds (money for food and whatever else while at Carrowinds is not included.) NOTE: $80 per child for families of 2 or more.

Leaders:

Karen Sawyer, Kristen McInnis, Amy Elrod, Maggie Bandy, and Mary Gause

Register:

Fill out registration form (available on-line) and send with $90 payable to FHPC and put “Mission Camp” in the memo line. You may either mail it to the church or place in Mary’s box in the FHOG office. Children are not considered “registered” until we receive form and money. We will send an email confirmation soon after we receive your registration. NOTE: Registration space is limited therefore we are holding early registration for Fort Hill members through July 1st.
